

Promotional Products Price-Fixing Class Action

Stoll Berne attorney, Keith Dubanevich, represents a class of customers who purchased silicone wristbands and pin buttons from Defendants Zaappaaz, Netbrands, Gennex Media, and Custom Wristbands. A $3.5 million settlement was reached on behalf of a nationwide class of purchasers.

The lawsuit, which was originally filed in 2017 and consolidated in 2018, claimed that the defendants conspired to fix prices of silicon wristbands and pin buttons in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act. Purchasers that bought these products from defendants between June 2014 and January/February 2020 may be eligible for settlement benefits.
