

Co-Trustee Dispute

Stoll Berne lawyer Josh Ross represented one of two co-trustees in a dispute between them regarding administration of trust assets. After the co-trustees' mother died, a dispute arose regarding distribution of the assets among the co-trustees and their family members, and the administration of the trust's assets. Ross helped negotiate a dismissal of two lawsuits filed by the other co-trustee and helped our client reach a settlement resolving all remaining claims.
