

International Market Price-Fixing Allegations

Keith Dubanevich defended a Japanese corporation in multidistrict litigation and arbitration alleging price-fixing and market allocation violations in the international parcel tanker shipping market. Keith represented the corporation's interests in numerous lawsuits filed in state courts and foreign countries. No indictments were returned against the firm's client and the civil cases all settled after multiple appeals, including an appeal from an order requiring arbitration of the direct purchaser disputes.

Case Team

Keith Dubanevich
Attorney