

Major Insurance Company Property Development Branch Representation

Keith Ketterling represented the property development branch of a major insurance company in contract litigation involving the $25 million purchase of moorages on the Columbia River. The firm obtained a damages verdict and attorney fees award after trial.

Case Team

Keith Ketterling

Co-Managing Attorney