

Intentional Interference Claims

Keith Ketterling represented a national broker-dealer in defending against contract and intentional interference claims by a broker seeking $18 million in damages. The amount ultimately awarded against the broker-dealer was under $50,000, significantly less than had been offered previously in settlement.

Case Team

Keith Ketterling
Co-Managing Attorney