

Representation of Broker in Disciplinary Administrative Proceeding Involving FINRA

Keith Ketterling represented a broker in a significant disciplinary administrative proceeding in FINRA in which the regulators sought a full suspension for nearly one year against the client. After a full regulatory hearing, the panel declined to require any suspension of the broker.

Case Team

Keith Ketterling

Co-Managing Attorney